

Stock Market To Be Studied By Night School

Security Investments, a class in stock market fundamentals, will be offered by the Torrance Evening High School at the Fern Ave. School cafeteria, located at Elm and Eldorado Sts., on Wednesdays from 7:30-9:30 p.m., according to Victor Kilburn, principal.

The first session will meet next week with Gene Olson as instructor. Mr. Olson is the senior analyst with William R. Staats & Co. of Los Angeles, member of the New York Stock Exchange. He is also an active member of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange Club.

Primary purpose of this class is to give the layman investor a practical, working knowledge of the various types of securities and of the operation of the stock market.

Each of the 10 two-hour classes will consist of one hour 50 minutes of questions and answers and 10 minutes of lecture and answers.

The lecture topics include:

Organization of the Stock Market, Operations of the Stock Market, Operations, Monetary and Fiscal Policy and the Business Cycle, Fundamentals of Security Analysis, Reading Financial Reports, Evaluating Different Industries, Mutual Funds and Investment Companies, Market Forecasting and Timing of Your Investments, and Managing Your Investments.

This class is endorsed by the Torrance Chamber of Commerce. Those interested may register at the first session.

Crafts Workshop to Be Held for Youth Leaders

A youth leaders' workshop on dramatics, stagecrafts and puppetry will be given by the Los Angeles County Dept. of Parks and Recreation at Alondra Park Community Building, Wednesday from 9:30 a.m. to noon.

The workshop will be limited to 55 participants. Persons interested in registering are asked to call DA. 3-4070.
